About the Topic/ Activity:

Lt. Dr. M. Dhadurya Naik's address to first-year B.Tech students at PVPSIT, the significance of the NCC (National Cadet Corps) program was emphasized. Lt. Dr. Naik, the Associate NCC Officer, welcomed the students and congratulated them on joining PVPSIT. He introduced himself and outlined his role in overseeing NCC activities at the institution. Lt. Dr. Naik highlighted the NCC program's value beyond academics, focusing on its role in character building and overall well-being. Key objectives of the NCC were discussed, including character development, leadership, physical fitness, patriotism, social awareness, career opportunities, camaraderie, and adventure. He detailed various NCC activities, such as physical fitness drills, trekking, and camping, and underscored the program's community service aspects, like cleanliness drives and disaster relief. Current cadets then shared their experiences, detailing how NCC had enhanced their character, leadership skills, and provided adventure and community service opportunities.
